

Name and country of birth: Mark Mulobi, Kenya

Summary: I am a Young and Emerging evaluation consultant at Benaphil Evaluation Consultants, a researcher by training and undertake evaluations predominantly in the development sector. I am passionate about providing opportunities in Africa for emerging evaluators to strengthen their skills in monitoring and evaluation.

Experience:

Mark has experience of undertaking evaluations in the development sector that includes all aspects of the evaluation process, specifically; project management, proposal development, data monitoring and management, quantitative and qualitative analysis and report writing.

He has undertaken and assisted in the design of mixed method evaluations and frequently works as a developmental evaluator.

He has served at EvalYouth as the secretariat, EvalVijana as the core leader and AfrEA YEE as a support to the leadership were, he is actively supporting and creating opportunities for evaluators to strengthen their evaluation practice. He is a current member of ESK, AfrEA, EvalSDGs and EvalIndigenous.

Education: Mark is currently finishing his Master's Degree in Monitoring & Evaluation.

Volunteer Work: He has served at EvalYouth as the secretariat, EvalVijana as the core leader and AfrEA YEE as a support to the leadership were, he is actively supporting and creating opportunities for evaluators to strengthen their evaluation practice. He is also a champion of the AfrEA YEE Network and secretariat of EvalYouth Task Force 1: Increasing the Involvement of YEE in VOPE governance, committees and activities.

Mark is a core member at the Inter-Regional Initiative for Professionalization of Evaluation (IRIPE). An initiative for the professionalization of evaluation to promote quality, credible and independent evidence for informed policymaking, in the context of the SDGs era, through in-country capacity strengthening at individual and institutional levels.

Finally, He is a dedicated member at Evaluation Society of Kenya (ESK) where he volunteers frequently.

Membership: Member of Evaluation Society of Kenya and legacy board member, deputy chair. Member of African Evaluation Association (AfrEA), EvalSDGs, EvalIndigenous and member of Blue Marble Evaluation Movement.